REGULAR "CORKER."

Sch. Richard Wainwright Has 550 Barrels Salt Mackerel.

Largest Salt Fare Landed for Many Years.

The champion mackerel fare of the season arrived Sunday when sch. Richard Wainwright, Capt. Thaddeus Morgan, arrived from the Bay of Fundy with 550 barrels salt mackerel, not only the biggest trip thus far this season but the largest salt fare for many years.

Some of the fish were taken on Georges on the start of the trip, but the bulk of the beauties were caught off Yarmouth, N. S., very recently. The Wainwright had all her barrels filled and fish kenched on deck. There were no vessels with her when the fish were taken, but sch. Bessie M. Devine arrived the day before Capt. Morgan started for home.

Since the opening of the season Capt. Morgan has done big work, being in the front rank all the time, and on one occasion being the high line. This big fare will give his stock a big boost and may land him once more at the head of the fleet.

Sch. Oliver Wendell Holmes, also from the Bay of Fundy, has a fine fare, 310 barrels of salt mackerel, and sch. Olympia has a good trip of 240 barrels.

Steamer Bonita landed 75 barrels of fresh mackerel at the Fort on Sunday, selling to John Nagle at 2 1-2 cents apiece.

The netters are also finding fish off here. At the Fort on Sunday, sch. Carrie E. landed 1350 fresh mackerel, sloop Bulah Maud 1700, sloop Helena 1700, and sloop Florence 400. The two former sold to W. W. Wonson at 2 3-4 cents apiece.

Sch. Ralph E. Eaton was at Provincetown Saturday with 230 barrels of salt mackerel on board.

Sch. Effie M. Morrissey is the only vessel at Boston with mackerel this morning. She had 80 bbls. of fresh fish and 10 bbls. of medium salt mackerel, taken on Middle Bank. The fresh fish sold for 16 cents for large and 6 cents for mediums.

Sch. Pleiades was at Provincetown Sunday with 125 barrels salt mackerel.

The fare of sch. Lizzie M. Stanwood sold to George Perkins & Son at $7 1-2 per bbl. for medium and $11 per bbl. for fish taken off Matinicus recently.

The fare of sch. Marguerite Haskins sold to W. W. Wonson at 5 cents apiece.

STRUCK LEDGE.

Sch. Richard Wainwright Strikes In the Inner Harbor.

Sch. Richard Wainwright, which arrived with such a big mackerel trip Sunday morning, struck on the sunken ledge in the channel off Five Pound island. A long piece of her shoe was chewed off and floated alongside. She will go on the railways for repairs.

This ledge has long been a menace to navigation and several vessels have struck on it, suffering more or less damage. It should be removed and at once.

Halibut Sale.

The fare of sch. Golden-Rod sold to the Atlantic Halibut Co. at 9 cts. per pound for white, 5 1-2 cts. per pound for small and 3 cents per pound for large gray.

IN THE FOG.

Two of the Crew of Sch. Golden-
Rod Go Astray.

Chances Favorable for Them
To Reach Land Safely.

Sch. Golden-Rod, Capt. Norman Ross, arrived from Bacalieu Bank, Sunday forenoon with her flag at half mast for two of her crew, John Fox and James Keay, who are astray from the vessel.

The accident happened July 29, when the crew went out to haul their trawls and it came in foggy. All the dories came back safely except the one containing Fox and Keay. A diligent search was made for them but without success.

Capt. Ross and his crew think that the missing men will be heard from all right, as they were only 75 miles from land and, a very strong current was setting shoreward.

Keay is 24 years old, single and a native of Guysboro, N. S.

Fox is 28 years old, single, and resides with his relatives in this city.

IN BELLE ISLE STRAITS.

Sch. Golden-Rod in the Ice for Eleven Days.

Capt. Norman Ross of sch. Golden-Rod reports that the vessel was in the ice for eleven days in the straits of Belle Isle on the passage down to Bacalieu Bank. In all that time the vessel was practically at the mercy of the ice floe, but finally succeeded in getting clear without being damaged. Capt. Ross also reports the tide and current as being exceptionally strong on the banks.

AFTER TILE FISH.

Vessel May Fit Out at Boston to Catch Them.

The fish merchants at T wharf are just now interested in the introduction of tile fish to this market, and it is possible that within a few weeks a vessel may be fitted out in Boston to go in quest of that particular kind of fish.

A. F. Rich, chairman of the fish dealers' committee and one of the most prominent dealers on T wharf, became especially interested. He had several of the fish prepared in different styles and invited the other dealers and experts to pass upon them. They all pronounced them very palatable and were surprised at the similarity between them and bass. The fish weigh from two to 20 pounds and their meat is hard and firm.

Capt. J. W. Collins, who has written an interesting history of the tile fish, says that it has many peculiarities of its own, and even to the casual observer presents features which differ essentially from those possessed by any other species. It has a general resemblance to the dolphin, the body being well formed, stout at the tail like the salmon, and the general makeup of the fish indicates that it is a rapid and active swimmer, well fitted to pursue and capture its food or to escape from its enemies.

Its distinguishing characteristics, however, are the nuchal or adipose dorsal fin just in front of the spinous dorsal, and the peculiar color which it exhibits, being so profusely spotted with patches of greenish yellow that it received the name of "leopard fish" from the fishermen who were the first to capture it.

Dozen Sail Made Good Hauls
Monday Afternoon.

Sch. Lena and Maud Has Big Trip at Portland.

The fleet in Boston Bay struck good fishing Monday afternoon between 4 o'clock and sundown, between the Race and Plymouth. There were nothing but shadows to chase in the forenoon, but late in the afternoon the fish came up in good shape and in consequence the following good fresh fares are at Boston this morning:

Schs. Helen Miller Gould, 100 bbls.; Nellie Dixon, 100 bbls.; Angielena, 150 bbls.; Cherokee, 40 bbls.; Charles A. Dyer, 50 bbls.; Elsie F. Rowe, 150 bbls.; Minerva, 200 bbls.; Mertis H. Perry, 100 bbls.; Amos Cutter, 75 bbls.; Emma W. Brown, 225 bbls.; M. Madeleine, 60 bbls.; Nellie A. Rowe, 100 bbls.; steamer A. B. Nickerson.

At Portland this morning sch. Lena and Maud arrived with 200 barrels of salt mackerel and 200 barrels of fresh mackerel. The fish were taken in Bay of Fundy and off Monhegan.

Capt. McFarland has been going along at a good steady jog ever since the season opened and has been up in the front rank right along. This nice fare looks as if he intended to keep right up with the leaders.

At this port this morning the little sloop Vesta is in port again loaded, this time having 110 barrels of fresh mackerel taken Monday off here.

Sch. Flora L. Nickerson was at Boothbay Sunday for fittings for another trip.

Sch. Corsair, Capt. Benj. McGray, is in port this morning with one of the finest salt mackerel fares of the season, 450 barrels. Most of the fish were taken in the Bay of Fundy, but Capt. McGray put the cream on the trip when he took 100 barrels of fine fish Sunday afternoon off Matinicus. He went into Boothbay for more barrels and salt and then came home with the big fare. Capt. McGray is doing finely, and his many friends are pleased to see the return of his old-time success.

The fleet which harbored at Boothbay Saturday, sailed Sunday afternoon and Monday morning.

The fare of sch. Speculator sold to the Gloucester Mackerel Co. at $11.75 per bbl. for large rimmed and $7.75 per bbl. for medium, part plain and part rimmed.

The fare of sch. Bertha M. Miller sold to James G. Tarr & Bro. and that of sch. Herald of the Morning to John Pew & Son.

The mackerel market is strong this morning and prices show an advance.

Sch. Mary Emerson landed six barrels of fresh mackerel at the Fort Monday evening, selling to the Gloucester Fresh Fish Co. at 5 cents apiece.

The fare of sch. Vesta sold to Nagle & Co. at 23-4 cents apiece.

The fare of sch. Reporter sold to George Perkins & Son at $9 per bbl. right through, half large and half medium.

The fare of sch. Ralph E. Eaton sold to Reed & Gamage at $81-8 per bbl.

There are good signs of mackerel off Race Point, but the fleet have not been able to secure many schools since Thursday. Most that have been taken have been run to market fresh.

It blew quite hard outside Monday afternoon and was quite rough, so several of the seining fleet now operating off here put in at this port for harbor.

Advices from Halifax, N. S., under the date of August 6, state that the Magdalene Island mackerel which arrived this week sold at $5.75 uninspected, and shore mediums at $6. It is reported that there has been good catches at St. Margaret's Bay within the last day or two, and reports from Sambro and places near by show that there are plenty of fish on the coast.
